

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM 3605

This form should be filed by an organization requesting recognition of exemption from Georgia income tax under provisions of Georgia Code Section 48-7-25, after the organization has received a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service. This form is not required if an organization had an exempt status in effect as of January 1, 1987. However, if said organization desires a determination letter from the Georgia Department of Revenue, Form 3605 must be filed. (Form 3605 does not apply to Georgia sales tax or withholding tax).

Effective for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2008, Form 3605 will no longer be required. Attach the IRS Determination Letter and Letter of Incorporation to the tax return.

This form should be accompanied by a copy of:

1. The instrument creating the organization;
2. The organization's by-laws or operating rules;
3. The determination letter received from the Internal Revenue Service recognizing tax exempt status;
4. A complete narrative statement reflecting activities in Georgia;
5. Copy of Certificate of Registration, Certificate of Incorporation, or Certificate of Authority issued by the Georgia Secretary of State's Office (if the organization is a corporation).

Georgia law requires an exempt organization to notify the Commissioner when:

1. It receives a termination notice from the IRS.
2. It ceases to be organized or operated in the manner in which it was organized and operated at the time the exempt status was granted.
3. There is any material change in the character or purpose of the organization.
4. The organization engages in any prohibited transaction.

An exempt organization is subject to a 6% tax on its unrelated business income from Georgia sources. This income must be reported on Georgia Form 600-T

An exempt organization must annually file a copy of the form it files with the Internal Revenue Service, such as Forms 990, 990EZ, or 990PF.

Form 3605 and other correspondence (no tax returns) should be mailed to:
